When Ivy receives a scholarship to attend a prestigious dance school in Paris, Bean decides to tag along for the ride. What follows is a whirlwind of laughter, misadventures, and unforgettable memories.

The "Funny Thing Happened on the Way to Paris Dance Class" graphic novels are brought to life by renowned author and illustrator Nancy Krulik. With her captivating storytelling and vibrant illustrations, Krulik transports readers to a world of charm, laughter, and friendship.

Book 1: The Trouble with Too Many Toot Toots

In the first book of the series, Ivy and Bean set off on their journey to Paris. However, their adventure takes an unexpected turn when Bean accidentally brings along her "toot toot" (a musical instrument that resembles a kazoo) instead of her ballet shoes.

As they navigate the bustling streets of Paris, Ivy and Bean encounter a series of hilarious mishaps. From getting lost in the Louvre to accidentally joining a mime troupe, their journey is filled with laughter and chaos.

Book 2: The Stinky Cheese Affair

In the second book, Ivy and Bean find themselves at the center of a smelly mystery. While visiting the Eiffel Tower, they encounter a group of suspicious characters who seem to be smuggling stinky cheese.

Determined to solve the crime, Ivy and Bean embark on a hilarious investigation. They follow clues, interview suspects, and even use Bean's pet lizard, Arnold, as a secret weapon.

More Books in the Series

The "Funny Thing Happened on the Way to Paris Dance Class" graphic novel series continues with more hilarious adventures, including:

- The Case of the Missing Diamond Tiara
- The Ghost of Madame Renard
- The Great Parisian Food Fight
