Sarah is a young woman who has come to Atlantic City to escape her past. She is drawn to the city's bright lights and the promise of a new beginning. However, Sarah soon learns that the city is not all that it seems. She becomes entangled in a web of gambling and addiction, and her life begins to spiral out of control.

Jack is a gambler who has been chasing his losses for years. He is a charismatic and charming man, but he is also haunted by his past. Jack is drawn to Sarah, and he sees in her a chance to redeem himself. However, Jack's gambling addiction threatens to destroy their relationship.

Tony is a casino owner who is struggling to keep his business afloat. He is a ruthless and ambitious man, but he is also capable of great kindness. Tony sees in Sarah and Jack a chance to save his casino, and he offers them a deal that they cannot refuse.

As Sarah, Jack, and Tony's lives become increasingly intertwined, they are forced to confront their own demons. They must learn to let go of the past and embrace the possibility of redemption. Atlantic City is a powerful and moving novel that explores the dark side of the American dream. It is a story about love, loss, and the power of redemption.
