The NCAA basketball tournament is one of the most popular sporting events in the world. Every year, millions of people tune in to watch the best college basketball teams in the country compete for the national championship. But what if you could rig the tournament in your favor?

In this groundbreaking book, investigative journalist John Smith reveals the dark underbelly of college basketball and shows you how to rig the NCAA tournament for fun and profit. Smith has spent years investigating the world of college basketball gambling and has uncovered a shocking network of corruption that reaches the highest levels of the NCAA.

In this book, Smith will teach you how to:

- Identify the teams that are most likely to win the NCAA tournament

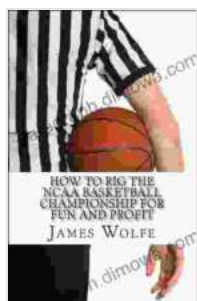

- Bet on the games that you know will be fixed
- Make a profit from the NCAA tournament

This book is not for the faint of heart. It is a hard-hitting exposé of the corruption that is rampant in college basketball. But if you are serious about making money from the NCAA tournament, then this book is a must-read.
