Synopsis

Act 1:

Lucky Starr, a talented young singer with dreams of stardom, arrives in New York City. She meets Jim Carter, a soldier haunted by the horrors of war, and Florence Nightingale, a compassionate nurse who volunteers at a local hospital.

As Lucky's star rises in the world of entertainment, Jim and Florence's paths intertwine. They find solace and support in each other during a time of great uncertainty and social upheaval.

Act 2:

The Roaring Twenties reach their peak, and Lucky becomes a world-renowned celebrity. However, her success comes at a price, as she grapples with the pressures of fame and the weight of her decisions.

Jim and Florence face their own challenges. Jim must confront his past and find a way to heal from the trauma of war. Florence battles prejudice and discrimination as she fights for the rights of women and the underprivileged.

Through it all, Lucky, Jim, and Florence never lose sight of their dreams and aspirations. Together, they navigate the complexities of life in the 1920s, proving that even in the face of adversity, the human spirit can soar.
