San Francisco

San Francisco is a street food paradise, with vendors serving up everything from tacos to dim sum to artisanal ice cream. Here are a few of our favorite spots:

- La Taqueria: This Mission District institution is known for its authentic tacos, made with fresh tortillas and delicious fillings.
- El Farolito: Another Mission District favorite, El Farolito is known for its giant burritos, which are filled with your choice of meats, beans, rice, and toppings.
- Brenda's Meat & Three: This SoMa spot serves up classic Southern comfort food, including fried chicken, meatloaf, and collard greens.
- The Chairman: This Chinatown restaurant is known for its delicious dim sum, which is served in small plates.
- Humphry Slocombe: This ice cream shop is known for its unique and innovative flavors, such as Secret Breakfast (bourbon, cornflakes, and maple syrup) and Blue Bottle Coffee.

East Bay

The East Bay is home to a number of great street food vendors, many of which are located in the vibrant cities of Oakland and Berkeley.

- Tacos El Último Baile: This Oakland taqueria is known for its delicious tacos, which are made with fresh tortillas and flavorful fillings.
- Horn Barbecue: This Oakland barbecue joint is known for its mouthwatering brisket, ribs, and pulled pork.
- Commis: This Berkeley restaurant is known for its innovative and seasonal menu, which features dishes made with fresh, local ingredients.

- Chez Panisse: This world-renowned Berkeley restaurant is known for its delicious and innovative California cuisine.
- The Cheese Board Collective: This Berkeley food cooperative is known for its delicious sandwiches, salads, and pastries.

South Bay

The South Bay is home to a number of great street food vendors, many of which are located in the cities of San Jose and Palo Alto.

- Taqueria La Mexicana: This San Jose taqueria is known for its delicious tacos, which are made with fresh tortillas and flavorful fillings.
- The Original Tommy's Joynt: This San Jose burger joint is known for its delicious burgers, which are made with fresh, local beef.
- Smokin' Pig BBQ: This Palo Alto barbecue joint is known for its mouthwatering brisket, ribs, and pulled pork.
- Salt & Straw: This Palo Alto ice cream shop is known for its unique and innovative flavors, such as Sea Salt with Caramel Ribbons and Honey Lavender.
- The Varsity Theatre: This Palo Alto movie theater is known for its delicious food, which includes burgers, pizzas, and milkshakes.
