A Literary Odyssey Along the South Devon Coast

Prepare to be captivated as you delve into the pages of "Seven Bays in Seven Days." Penny Coombes, a seasoned traveler and storyteller, takes you on an extraordinary voyage through South Devon's most captivating bays. With each bay serving as a chapter, you'll embark on a literary pilgrimage, tracing the footsteps of renowned writers and poets who have sought inspiration in these enchanting shores.

From Agatha Christie's beloved Burgh Island to the rugged cliffs of Bolt Head, where Daphne du Maurier's imagination soared, South Devon's bays have woven their magic into countless literary masterpieces. Penny Coombes weaves these literary threads into her narrative, creating a rich tapestry of history, culture, and imagination.

Seven Days, Seven Bays, Endless Enchantment

Over seven enchanting days, you'll discover the secrets of each bay, immersing yourself in its unique character and charm. Start your journey in the vibrant town of Dartmouth, nestled at the mouth of the River Dart. Explore the historic streets, admire the majestic naval college, and embark on a boat trip to Greenway House, once the summer retreat of the renowned author Agatha Christie.

Continue your voyage to the idyllic beauty of Slapton Ley, a tranquil nature reserve teeming with wildlife. Stroll along the golden sands, spot migratory birds, and soak up the serenity of this unspoiled haven. As you venture deeper into South Devon, you'll encounter the dramatic coastline of Bolt Head, where towering cliffs meet crashing waves. Discover the hidden coves, explore the remnants of an ancient castle, and let the untamed beauty of this rugged landscape ignite your imagination.

No literary voyage of South Devon would be complete without a visit to the enchanting village of Salcombe. Nestled on the shores of a picturesque estuary, Salcombe exudes a timeless charm that has captured the hearts of writers and artists for centuries. Wander through the narrow streets, browse the quaint bookshops, and soak up the maritime atmosphere of this charming haven.
